OCTOBER.

BY GEORGE W. ELLIOTT.

The twittering swallows whirl in rapid flight,
Then backward turn, to linger o'er the scene
Endeared through all the gladsome summer-time,
In council, ere they wing to Southern climes.
A leaden grav o'er all the sky is cast,
And gathering mists bedim the morning sun.
Across the fields the cow-boy's homeward feet
A green trail leave upon the frosty grass.
The ripened apples bend the orchard boughs,
Or lie in fragrant piles beneath the trees.
Herd by the farm-house groans the cider-press,
While amber currents fill the vat below,
No tint of emerald green upon the lawn,
In early spring which tantless Nature paints
With brush of sunbeams dipped in morning dew,
Nor yet the hues of fast-succeeding flowers
That spangle o'er the meadow's n.west dress,
Are lovelier than the rich and chasing dyes
That beautify the early autumn leaves,
The maple soft, upon its tender top,
And, by degrees, adown its graceful form,
Reveals a light but deepening crimson tinge,
Outrivalled only by the modest blush
That comes and goes upon a maiden's cheek
When first she hears the earnest, vow of love.
The flaming ivy, twining round the elm,
An emblem seems of ruined purity,
That in its deep despair still closely clings
About the parent of its wrongs. The tips
Of golden-rod like funeral tapers burn
Amidst the melancholy scenes of death,
The sturdy oak in robe of purple stands,
An earnest in murmer overwhelmed with grief—
Himself the wasting victim of decay.
The hickory seems with gold-n pendants hung;
Fit emblems here of mortal's brightest hopes,
That soon, like Dead Sea fruit, to ashes turn.
The hardy hemlock and the towering pine
Alone retain their spring-time loveliness;
And stand unchanged in the surrounding gloom,
Like noble principled and lofty aims
Amid the ephemeral follies of the world.

—A Paris collector lately bought an old stove made by a potter of Villingen nearly three hundred years ago for six hundred florins, and subsequently sold it to an English collector for nearly five times that sum. It is made of clay, and is adorned with pictures of the Bible.

—It is noticed as a remarkable fact that the castle of Pau, where Queen Isabella of Spain is now taking refuge, is the same in which Henry IV. of France, the first of the royal line of Bourbons, was born, three hundred and fifteen years ago. It is certainly a singular coincidence.

—Excepting in front of some open space, such as the Allegheny Commons or the river, persons should not fire off rockets, any more than they should a cannon; surely we have had accidents enough to warn any reasonable people against showing their enthusiasm in this way.

—The highest mine in the world is a silver mine, and is that of Potosi, in the Andes of Peru. It is situated 11,376 feet above the surface of the ocean. The deepest mine in the world is a salt mine. It is the so-called new Seizwerk in Westphalia, and is 3,050 feet below the surface of the ocean.

—The daughter of the Czar, who is soon to become Queen of Bavaria, is said to be a beautiful girl with sweet expression, regular features, dark hair and wonderfully small and well formed hands and feet. As her consort that is to be is strikingly handsome, Bavaria might well be proud of the appearanee of her rulers.

—Count Walewski recently recognized the daughter, whom the celebrated Rachel bore to him, as his legitimate child. The Countess Walewski generously consented to the act, and the daughter, who is now nineteen years of age, lives at the house of her father. She is very good looking, but bears almost no resemblance to her mother, and does not possess any dramatic talent.

—The New York letters in the Paris Pays, predicting that Seymour and Blair will be elected, and stating that the Radical leaders had virtually given up the contest, are written by an attaché of the French Consulate General, in New York. The reliability of these letters is obvious from the fact that the correspondent predicted an overwhelming Democratic triumph in Maine.

—By order of the Prince Royal of Italy, "each of the two hundred gentlemen who took part in the tournament on the occasion of his marriage has received a jewelled ornament as appendage to a watch. These gifts bear the initials of the royal pair in brilliants, and are of fine Florentine manufacture. Photograph portraits of Prince Humbert and the Princess Marguerite accompanied each present."

MANUFACTURES.

—About 6,000,000 bricks have been made in Lewiston, Maine, this year.

—The Winthrop woolen mills have a contract to deliver 4,000 blankets to one house.

—A new wooden pail factory to employ 200 hands, is to be established at Peshtigo, Wisconsin.

—The Plymouth (Mass.) Hammer Factory is a new concern, which makes hammers and steel boot shanks.

—A new hat shop 80 by 66 feet and four stories high was started up in Danbury, Connecticut, last week.

—The Spragues now own the old Kennebec cotton mill at Augusta, Me., and are raising it one story higher.

—The Bay State Sugar Refinery of Boston employs 45 hands and turns out about 300 barrels of sugar per diem.

—The James Steam Cotton Mills at Newburyport, Mass., are hereafter to run full time. The wages of the operatives have been raised.

—The Goodyear Shoe Company, has recently enlarged its factory and added much new machinery, so that it now turns out more than one thousand pairs of shoes per day.

—There are, in Bethel, Connecticut, 12 hat factories, employing 570 hands, and making about 500 dozen hats daily. One of these factories employ 225 hands and makes 1,800 hats daily.

—The cotton mills at Eagle Mill and South Troy, Iredell county, N. C., which were burned by the Union troops in 1865, have been rebuilt. The new mills are superior to the old.

—A carpet manufactory at Amsterdam, New York, covers half an acre of ground, employs two hundred and fifty hands, and makes one thousand yards of ingrain, two-ply and tapestry carpets daily.

—A new cotton mtll 70 by 62 feet, and five stories high, is being built in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, where a new fire proof flouring mill has just been completed. It is four stories high and has grain bins which will hold 30,000 busheis.

—The China Manufacturing Company has just finished its new cotton mills at Suncook, New Hampshire. It is 366 by 72 fect and five stories high; over 3,000,000 bricks were used in its construction. It will be used for the manufacture of prints.

—One firm in Columbus, Ohio, use 2,000,000 feet of lumber per year, and besides their own force, employ labor at the Penitentiary. They turn out fifteen wood parts of carriages, twenty-five dozen carriage shafts, ten dozen poles, one hundred sets of hubs, and bend one hundred felloes per day. They have recently introduced a new solid Brewster pattern carriage seat, which is cheap and handsomely finished in poplar wood.

THE USE OF FANS.—Fans have become, in many countries, a necessary appendage of the toilet. The use of them was first discovered in the East, where the heat suggested their utility. In the Greek Church, a fan is placed in the hands of the deacons, in the ceremony of their ordination, in allusion to a part of their office in that church, which is to keep the flies off the priests dur- ng the celebration of the sacrament. In pan, where neither men nor women wear , except as a protection against rain, a to be seen in the hand or the girdle of nhabitant. Visitors receive dainties hem upon their fans; the beggar, charity, holds out his fan for the yer may obtain. RIVER NEWS.

The river remains about stationary, with two feet in the channel. The weather yesterday was clear and pleasant, though towards evening, it clouded up, and gave slight indications of rain.

There has been no arrivals since our last report, and the Julia No. 2, for Zanesville, was the only departure.

The Ingomar came up from the ways, and is now ready for business as soon as there is sufficient water.

The Camelia, Capt. Thos. Poe, is announced for Nashville.

—The Emma No. 3 is loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans.

—The Kate Putnam, en route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed Cairo on Saturday.

—Capt. Sharp Hemphill, of the mountain steamer Andrew Aekley, passed through Cincinnati for Pittsburgh, from St. Louis, on Saturday.

—Capt. M. A. Cox and Ad. Jacobs, are building a boat at Brownsville for the Mountain trade. She will be ready in to leave here next Spring.

—There were but eight boats at the Cincinnati wharf on Sunday—the Major Anderson, Anna, Abeona, Emma No. 3, Minnie, Glasgow, Emma Floyd and St. James.

—The Wauanita, St. Louis to Pittsburgh, and the Glasgow, Louisville to Pittsburgh, both arrived at Cincinnati on Saturday, but are unable to proceed at present, for want of water.

—A communication from the Congressional Excursion Committee was laid before the Louisville Council on Thursday night, and referred to the Committee on Finance.

—Capt. Howell's boat, the Rapidan No. 2, has gone on the ways, at Paducah to be lengthened, and have a model bow put on her. She will enter the Evansville and Tennessee river trade when her repairs are completed.

—The steamea Kate Hart was sold by the United States Marshal on Saturday for $2,100, Capt. Dave Campbell being the purchaser. The boat will probably be dismantled, as of late she has proved rather unprofitable stock.

—John Greenough a well known Pittsburgher, but who for several years past has been boating between St. Louis and New Orleans, was a passenger on the Bismark which boat left St. Louis for New Orleans on Sunday. He goes South for the benefit of his health.

—The following gentlemen went security for Capt. Donaldson, of the steamer Great Republic, for ten thousand dollars each: W. H. Thorwegan, A. Howe, C. M. Elleard, Geo. D. Capen, George C. Wolff, Theo. Laveille, J. N. Bofinnger, Thos. Morrison, H. C. Yeager and Ben. Johnson. Capt. Donaldson will appear for trial when called.

—The New Orleans Crescent says: "The neat and handsome packet Tablequah changed owners yesterday. Captain Abrams disposed of her to Mr. Charles A. Breard for the sum of $13,000. The Tahlequah is about the lightest draft boat that has entered the Ouachita river, and that she will go through to Camdee (for which she was destined) there can be no doubt."

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be, and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs, the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out of the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. K. says that he has known the most distressing and harassing coughs, whose vibrations would threaten to shake the whole constitution to pieces, removed in the course of a few days. In long standing cases of consumption, or of other sometimes fatal but always troublesome and annoying maladies, known as catarrh, chronic bronchitis, trachitis or pharyngitis, it is a wonderful alleviating medicine in the former and a sure cure in the latter disease.

DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE IS ENRICHED BY SOME OF THE MOST VALUABLE PLANTS AND HERBS KNOWN TO BE USEFUL AND CURATIVE IN ALL DETERIORATED STATES OF THE HUMAN BLOOD, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no falling into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable and so most surely fatal.

ALLEGHENY CITY nobly sustained her record yesterday, and gave such majorities as should make all her true and loyal citizens feel proud.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY has given nine thousand for HARTRANFT and CAMPBELL, and now goes into training to give GRANT and COLFAX three thousand more in November.

PITTSBURGH came up squarely to her work yesterday, and made a clean sweep of all the candidates for municipal honor arrayed against the principles of the great Republican party. Our nominees for Mayor, Controller and Treasurer, are all elected by overwhelming majorities. Keep the ball rolling. What was done yesterday can be repeated in November in a more decisive manner. Close up the ranks and let the disabled Democracy take care of themselves while we press on to a higher victory.

MR. BURT was never anything but an accident in the politics of Allegheny county, Endowed with importance through a temporary effervescence of parties, he has now subsided into his natural obscurity.

In Birmingham, where he resides, and where his influence at first was largest, he yesterday ran materially behind his ticket. This candle has burnt out.

WE HAVE received from T. P. Peterson & Brothers a campaign edition of "The Lives of Horatio Seymour and Frank P. Blair, Jr.," and "Leah; or the Forsaken," a Jewish Maiden. Also the Life and Campaigns of Gen. U. S. Grant, by Gen. James G. Wilson, from the house of R. M. Dewitt, New York. Harper & Brothers have sent us "The Dower House," by Annie Thomas, an English story of great merit. These pamphlet publications are all for sale by W. A. Gildentenney, Fifth avenue.

AN evening contemporary insists that the Legislature of Pennsylvania, at its next session, shall pass a law putting the State election thenceforward on the same day as the Presidential election. That would be a summary way of accomplishing a most desirable change, but it so happens that the day for holding the State election cannot be changed by Legislative enactment for the plain reason that it is determined by the Constitution.

As we judge, the Constitution ought to be amended in several particulars; this among others. But, we doubt if the time has yet fully arrived for taking up that important work. Perhaps it may come in season to have the task completed before the next Presidential contest.

LAST December Mr. BLACKMORE was elected Mayor through a combination of circumstances, which most of our readers well remember. Many Republicans were discontented with the local management of the party. The workingmen had an organization embodying considerable numbers belonging to each of the great political parties. The Democrats were ready to fall in and supplement any movement that promised to defeat the Republicans. As matters stood, the only difficulty was to find who possessed so little individuality and force as not to have given offence to any body or any party, and who had besides an easy and complying disposition. These prerequisites were found in Mr. BLACKMORE. A sort of People's nomination was given him; then the Workingmen accepted him, and as soon as he was elected the Democrats appropriated and swallowed him.

This could not last. If he had possessed sterling administrative qualities, he might have been re-elected yesterday. But his conspicuity was the result of his feebleness; and when subjected to trial, he proved so ...ess a failure that he was speedily ...ed to defeat.

...r. BRUSH, his competitor, was well ...own as a man of fine capacities. Hence, ...ere was a concentration upon him of the ...epublican strength. In his hands the government of the city will exhibit promptness and vigor, combined with discretion.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

The latest telegrams indicate that the Republicans have carried the State by from twelve to sixteen thousand majority. Under the circumstances, that will do. The Democrats resorted to most unblushing frauds in the matter of naturalization, and to a gigantic system of colonization; but without other result, on the general issue, than to disclose their own desperation and and criminality. Doubtless, they reduced the majority to which we were honestly entitled, by many thousands; but, as the case stands, it will be easy to give GRANT and COLFAX thirty thousand in November.

In the present Congress the Republicans have twenty of the twenty-four Representatives.

Mr. COVODE'S reelection is a matter of doubt. The returns seem to indicate that he is defeated, but we trust the figures yet to be received will let him out of the woods, as his services cannot well be dispensed with in the National Assembly.

There seems to be no doubt but the Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot in the Legislature; thus securing a United States Senator in place of Mr. BUCKALEW. We gain two members of the House in Franklin and Perry; one in Hungtingdon, Mifflin and Juniata; one in Union and Snyder, and one in Westmoreland and Indiana. We have probably saved the Senator in Franklin and Adams. We hear of no losses.

OHIO.

The great issue of Peace or War, of the Supremacy or the Disregard of Law, was submitted also to the people of Ohio yesterday. Her half million of citizens have pronounced upon that issue by a verdict most emphatic in its tones and decisive in its meaning. Electing the Union State ticket by a majority estimated at from 25,000 to 30,000, the friends of the Union hold their own in the Congressmen, choosing as before sixteen of the nineteen members. A possible loss in the Toledo district is counterbalanced by the substitution of STEVENS (Rep.) for that wretched demagogue CAREY in the IInd. Should we elect COOPER, in the XIIIth, of which there is now a fine chance, we shall have seventeen members, all of the delegation but two.

The Buckeye State responded heartily and cheerfully to the universal confidence with which patriots everywhere have relied upon her support.

INDIANA.

This State united her voice with those of Pennsylvania and Ohio for the Union and Peace, in yesterday's elections. The Republican Governor with all the State ticket, a majority of the Legislature and eight (perhaps nine) of the eleven Congressmen, as now, are the trophies of this splendid triumph.

NEBRASKA.

This young State of the Far West hastens to join the Grand Army of the Union, electing yesterday the Republican nominees for her Governor and other State officers, and for the majority of her Legislature.

NOW: ONE MORE VOLLEY.

The enemy are broken in all parts of the field, and it needs but one more round from the Friends of the Union on the 3d of November to turn the defeat of the rebels into a rout, complete, final and irreparable.

HONOR THEM!

The Union men of Allegheny, with one hearty accord, acknowledge their great obligations to those citizens who, filling their Executive Committees, have so conducted this canvass as to contribute in the largest degree to that glorious issue which now gratifies all. The labors of those Committees, like the importance of the issues themselves, have been extraordinary, indeed, in many respects, without precedent, and the fruits which they have assisted so much to secure, are not less remarkable in their influence upon the highest interests of the people in the County, State and Nation.

No canvass in Allegheny was ever more skillfully, gallantly and faithfully fought, and it is the first duty now of the grateful friends of the Union here, to bear this cordial testimony to the value of the services which those Committees have rendered.

WHICH OF THESE BE RIGHT?

Illinois promises over fifty thousand majority for GRANT and Peace. Democratic readers, whom party-ties still shackle, we beg you not to forget that Illinois, ten years since, led your Democratic column. She still leads a living and patriotic Democracy, and why are you not standing shoulder to shoulder in the same ranks? Are these hundreds of thousands of Democrats all wrong now, and you alone right? Have they all gone after strange gods, and you alone faithful to the old landmarks? Your right of private judgment is your own, but when you thus see the entire masses of a populous State, your tried and true friends of old, diverging from you by a different road, would it not be well to consider whether you or they are in the right way?

THE TRUE NOBILITY OF MANHOOD.

Our good county of Allegheny has ever been able to vaunt itself as the seat of Mechanical Science and Prosperous Industry. Our manufactures are known in all the markets of the Continent; the products of our forges and work-shops need to bear only the Pittsburgh stamp to command the patronage and confidence of millions of distant consumers. This tribute to the skill and to the integrity of the operative population of Allegheny county is unvarying, universal and unhesitating. It is a proof that our working-men have not only the hands to execute but the brain to conceive, —the capacity to plan, and the strength to do all which has given us this wide renown.

But the working-men of Allegheny county exhibited yesterday to their fellow-citizens throughout the Republic still nobler evidences of their superior intelligence. By the decisive nature of their response to the insidious but discreditable appeals by which demagogues sought to mislead their judgments, they have magnificently vindicated the clear brain which guides their strong arms; they have heaped their scornful contempt upon the shallow partizans who sought to insult their discernment by delusive bribes to their pockets; they have declared in accents which can never be forgotten that, altho' their hands be hard with toil, and their raiment not of the most fashionable cut, the men of Allegheny, whose hard work has earned for us our industrial pre-eminence, are quite as capable of comprehending an argument, of penetrating a fallacy or of despising a dishonest political trick, as any other community within the broad limits of the Union.

All honor to our workingmen for yesterday's vote! Remember what persistent and infamously shameful artifices have been employed by the BURTTS, the CARYS and others of that sort to deceive them! Remember how uniformly and faithfully those demagogues have stuck to the Democratic idea that the workingman was a simpleton or a knave, because he was a workingman, because he was one of a class whom high Democratic authority has repeatedly stigmatized as "servile," and have accordingly labored, for months past, to command his vote by exciting his prejudices, by mis-stating his real interests, and by insulting his understanding with speeches more fit to be addressed to idiots or thieves. You, reader, who have once heard these Democratic speeches to the workingmen of our county, in this canvass, can never forget the feeling of manly and indignant disgust which you then felt. You realize now, what we never doubted for a moment, that the workingmen of Allegheny have heads too clear and hearts too sound to be led astray by folly or knavery or swindling, no matter how specious may be the disguise, and that the vote of 1868 will be, in all coming years, pregnant with warning to all who shall assume to be their political teachers.

FRIENDS of the law of peace and of good order everywhere regard the President's order, encouraging the Texas rebels to take part in the Presidential election, with much serious concern. While it is true that such votes cannot and will not, in any event, be received and counted in the Electoral College, it is to be deplored that the ostensible sanction of the Federal Executive endorsement should be given to the unlawful schemes of rebels who are always ready to make the most of any such excuses. The direct and inevitable effect must be to precipitate a collision in those three States, and extending throughout the South, between those who uphold and those who defy the law, and the results, in the present temper of the public mind, cannot fail to be very serious, while the end finally must be that the last remaining trace of the infernal spirit of rebel disloyalty shall be stamped out forever.

The rebels of those three States will proceed at once to choose Presidential electors, and the President will demand that their votes be counted. Thus the issue narrows, until its true character can no longer be disguised. And we believe that the loyal people of the Union are ready for it.

THE Governor of West Virginia urges the President to send troops into that State to preserve the peace at the coming election, the disfranchised rebels threatening to vote at all hazards. No action has yet been taken on this application. Affairs in that State are in a very critical condition, owing to the universal audacity and violence of the disfranchised rebels. The local journals are filled with reports of disturbances already occurring, frequently resulting in the adjournment of the Registrars without action, and it is impossible to avoid the conviction that the State election, on the 22d inst., will be marked by much violence and bloodshed, and probably by an entire disregard of the law. Nothing less was to be expected from the friends of FRANK BLAIR.

A LADY of Arkansas, of rare intelligence and uncommon opportunities for comprehending the political situation, in a private letter to us says:

"The men of the North must not let Seymour be elected; otherwise we Northern people will be obliged to fly to our old homes. It would be impossible for us to remain here; such is the bitter feeling of the larger part of the white population."

Rhode Island Republican Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PROVIDENCE, October 13.—The Republican State Convention met to-day. Hon. S. N. Mason, of Woodsocket, presided. Following are the nominees for Presidential Electors: George H. Norman, of Newport; James T. Edwards, of East Greenwich; James W. Pendleton, of Westerly; Seth Paddleford, of Providence. In the Republican Convention for the Western District, Hon. N. F. Dixon, of Providence, was re-nominated for Congress.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

Few of the numerous editions of the great novelist's works will compare with this one, for its excellencies in so many respects. Finely printed on white creamy paper, open faced type, double columns, and with head lines showing the contents of each page. The elegant appearance of the volume, convenient size and fine illustrations, and reasonable price, make it very desirable for library purposes. This is the third volume of the series and contains "David Copperfield," "Christmas Stories," "Tale of Two Cities" and "Uncommercial Traveller," the character of each being well known.

BEPPO, THE CONSCRIPT. A Novel. By T. Trollope, author of "Gemma," "Marietta," etc. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Trollope's familiarity with Italian life, arising from his long residence in "sunny Italy," has enabled him to present its different phases in a very interesting form. The story is full of interest and the reader is able to enjoy views of that beautiful country, and characteristic features of society, which will amply repay the reader. As usual the prominent characters are involved in the labyrinths of love, resulting in the grand finale of marriage. The story hinges on the conscription, which is analagous to what is called drafting in the United States.

BULWER'S MISCELLANEOUS PROSE WORKS. Two Volumes. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, No. 45 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh.

It is rarely such a literary melange is to be found as is embraced in these two volumes. Varied as the contents are, they show the master mind of Bulwer, his culture and deep experience in literary attainments. The articles of the first volume comprise reviews on literary and political topics, and assuming a biographical type. The second contains Bulwer's early writings, and some later articles of great merit, in which are shown the influence of Love on Literature.

THE OPIUM HABIT. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York. For sale by W. A. Gildenfenny, No. 45 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh.

Very few are aware of the insidious advances of this terrible evil of Opium eating, and the fact that there are eighty to one hundred thousand persons in this country who are abject slaves to it. The startling array of facts embodied in this work should strike terror into every slave of the habit, who may have an opportunity to read it. This volume has been compiled with a view to benefit opium eaters. Valuable suggestions abound throughout the volume.

THE NEGROES IN NEGRO LAND—By Hinton Roman Helper, author of "The Impending Crisis in the South." Published by G. W. Carleton, New Kork. For sale by John W. Pittock, corner of Fifth avenue and Smithfield streets, Pittsburgh.

The character of this work may be gathered from the title page, which reads thus: The "Negroes in the Negro land, the Negroes in America, and Negroes generally. Also the several races of white persons. "It is a bundle of paragraphs arrayed against the colored man, and shows the power of "caste in the South."

POEMS—By Horace Biddle. Published by Hurd & Houghton, New York. For sale by R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

This is a neat volume of 341 p. p., printed at the celebrated Riverside Press. The principal poems are of an emotional character, and of a highly florid style. The author possesses youthful ardor and imagination, the defects of which may disappear in time; with mature experience and culture.

THE GOLDEN FRUIT. By Mrs. J. McNair, author of "Golden Heart," "Golden Life," etc. Published by Henry Hoyt, Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

Lessons are embodied in this work of great moral worth, and especially adapted to youthful minds. Christian graces and illustrations of character are presented, too, in an attractive form. It treats of the golden fruits of the Spirit, and the fruits of right doing. It is worthy of the series of Sunday School publications, issued by this house, and we can commend it for Sunday School Libraries and family reading. The book is handsomely gotten up, and deserves a wide circulation.

AMONG THE ARABS. A Narrative of Adventures in Algeria. By G. Naphegyi, M. D., A. M., author of "History of Hungary," etc. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

The wanderings of the author among this strange people are portrayed in an abandon style which adds much to the interest of the reader. The curious scenes narrated of Arab life are full of novelty, and the reader is enabled to have an intelligent knowledge of their manners and habits. The work is sufficiently full of adventure and daring to give edge and piquancy in reading it, GODOLPHIN. By Slr Edward Bulwer Lytton, Bart. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street, Pittsburgh.

We believe this closes the publication of the "Globe Edition" of Bulwer's Novels and Romances. The story is of Italian and English life. The leading character and wonderful creation of the author is Lucilla, the astrologer's daughter. As we have stated before, this is the best edition of Bulwer's prose fictions that we have seen, and combines neatness, beauty and cheapness. Persons desirous to have an elegant edition would do well to buy this one.

GRACE OWEN'S ENGAGEMENT. Published by Loring, Boston. For sale by Henry Miner, Pittsburgh.

This is a reprint from "Blackwood's" Magazine, and comprises the series of "Loaing's Tales of the Day," so popular and saleable, TALKS WITH A CHILD ON THE BEATITUDES. Published by J. B Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

We do not coincide with the opinion expressed by some, that this work is written in a style above the capacity of youthful minds. Better far to seek to lift the mind of a child up, to grasp noble and pure thoughts, than to minister to a low standard of thought. The blessings of the beatitudes are presented in a conversational form, attractive and graceful in style, and cannot fail to interest children, and at the same time do them good.

MEMOIR OF ALBERT NEWSMAN. Deaf Mute Artist. By Joseph O. Pyatt, Mute Professor in the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

This singularly gifted mute attained quite a reputation in certain departments of art. It is conceded that his attainments in the photographic art will confer upon him an enduring name in its annals. The incidents of his life are remarkable, and will doubtless be interesting, not only to his brothers and sisters in misfortune, but to every reader. The leading traits of character and incidents of this mute artist, are presented in quite a readable form. The fact that Newsman was raised near this city, and the author's family once resided here, should add interest to the work in this community. Col. Russell Errett, GAZETTE Building, will cheerfully convey orders to the author for this work.

THE FISHERMAN'S DAUGHTERS, and other stories. Published by Henry Hoyt, Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

This volume belongs to the excellent "Sunday School Series of Juvenile Religious Works," and contains the same commendable features of "Golden Fruit." It is just the kind of a book for young folks. The vicisitudes of life are woven together in chaste and bracing language. The other stories are in the same happy vein as the "Fisherman's Daughters." It is an excellent work for the library and the family circle.

INFELICIA. By Adah Isaacs Menken. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis, Pittsburgh.

The author of these verses was widely known, because of her singular habits and course of life. Her brief career was full of remarkable scenes. However much she might have disregarded the laws of true versification, noble sentiments, nevertheless, the poems are expressed in earnest and chaste language. Gifted with a strong emotional nature, she has woven together verses full of pathos. The book however, is a curiosity in literature, and its perusal awakens sad thoughts of her unhappy life and death. The work is dedicated to Charles Dickens.

We have received some advance sheets of this work, which, from the table of contents sent, indicate a work of thrilling interest. It will have a large sale and be a popular work. It will be sold by subscription. For full particulars and terms, address the publishers.

HOURS OF HOME. Published by C. Scribner & Co., New York.

The October number of this excellent monthly, closes the seventh volume. It contains articles of great value, and indeed always has substantial and readable papers. Particular attention is given to high toned moral articles, which should make it a welcome visitor in family circles.

A SLIGHT COLD, COUGH,

Or SORE THROAT may be checked if a reliable remedy is applied at once, but if neglected very soon preys upon the lungs, and the result may prove fatal. The past few weeks of changeable temperature and cold rains are fruitful sources of troubles of the lungs, throat and chest. If you are attacked by a cold, no matter how slight, use at once

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP,

Which is an old and well tried remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all Affections of the Pulmonary Organs.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Is entirely free from any deleterious ingredient, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP

Gives sure and almost immediate relief to hoarseness and that annoying sensation, tickling, in the throat. If you would obtain a reliable remedy, be sure and call for

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

If your Druggist does not keep it, ask him to get it for you.

COUNSEL FOR THE CARELESS.

The body is a machine, and carelessness in its management is as sure to lead to evil results as carelessness in the management of a steam engine. Yet the last thing that most people think of is the protection of this delicate piece of the Creator's handiwork from the subtle causes of disease by which it is surrounded. It is no easy thing to repair the system when in ruins; but there is no difficulty in fortifying it against many of the dangers to which it is exposed. Guard against nervous debility. At the first symptom of this forerunner of more serious ailments, sustain the flagging energies of nature with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Take it regularly and persistently, until bodily vigor is thoroughly restored. It creates an appetite, promotes—or, it might, as properly be said compels—the complete digestion of the food, regulates the secretive action of the liver, tones and invigorates the bowels, improves the condition of the blood, and gives firmness to the nerves. Upon a system thus strengthened and regulated in all its important functions, the fogs and exhalations of autumn, pregnant with the elements of intermittent fever, can make little or no impression. Whoever supposes that fever and ague is an unavoidable evil in certain districts, at this season of the year, is egregiously mistaken. As effectually as a draught of cold air is shut out by the closing of a door, this complaint, and all disorders of a miasmatic type, may be prevented by the use of the BITTERS. When sickness can be avoided by a means so safe and simple, is it not the merest fatuity to neglect the proffered antidote? Regarded either as a preventive or a cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fever, nervous disorders, general debility, or constipation of the bowels, this pure vegetable preparation stands alone.

DISEASED LUNGS.

There is no doubt whatever that diseases of the lungs, or ulcers of whatever sort, on any of the internal organs may be and are frequently cured, and a complete condition of health established. If the elaborative functions, of which the stomach is the primary and most important one, are restored to a condition to do the repairing of the human system, ulcers or sores, whether upon the lungs the liver, the kidneys or the bowels, or upon the legs, as is frequently the case, can be made to heal, and a complete standard of health re-established.

We have frequently seen these results from the use of Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE, a pleasant and agreeable medicine, which will ripen up and carry out the animal economy all effete and used up material. Dr. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is enriched by some of the most valuable plants and herbs known to be useful and curative to all deteriorated states of the human blood, and whilst it adds to its plasma, it at the same time stimulates, gently but effectively, the skin, the kidneys, the liver and the glandular system to sufficient action to enable the body to take on healthful action and eradicate the disease. The sick and afflicted should bear in mind the virtues of this great medicine, and if those who are sufficiently alive to the importance of health, will resort to it in the beginning of a cough or cold, there would be no failing into declines and rapid consumption, so hopelessly incurable, and so most surely fatal. Let any one afflicted with any pulmonary disease try but one bottle, and they will be convinced of the value of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure. Sold by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood St.

DR. KEYSER'S RESIDENT OFFICE for LUNG EXAMINATIONS AND THE TREATMENT OF OBSTINATE CHRONIC DISEASES, 130 PENN STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA. Office hours from 9 A. M. UNTIL 4 P. M.

AN AUTOGRAPH LETTER FROM

GEORGE D. PRENTICE, Esq.,

Editor of the "Louisville Journal."

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5th, 1866.

DR. LIGHTHILL—DEAR SIR: I am very sorry to learn that you contemplate leaving Louisville at the end of the present week. I earnestly wish that your engagement elsewhere might permit you to remain here for a longer time.

Your sojourn among us, Dr. Lighthill, will be long remembered by our people. It has been a blessing to many. You have treated me and a female member of my family with great success. You seem to me to understand, as by intuition, the character of a malady and its best remedy. You have a multitude of patients in this city, and I have not seen or heard of one to whom you held out the promise of relief without rendering it. Your entire practice among us has been a brilliant success, and I cheerfully recommend you to my friends and the public at large as a physician deserving the utmost confidence.

Hoping that you may live long to be a blessing to additional thousands of the afflicted, I am, very truly, yours. GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

TESTIMONIAL FROM THE

REV. JOHN NOTT, D. D.,

Professor in Union College, Schenectady.

SCHENECTADY, January 17th, 1866.

DR. LIGHTHILL—SIR: Having been cured by you of a discharge in an ear, which has been very offensive of late, and, far back as I can remember, always more or less so, and having been entirely restored to hearing since under your care, I feel that I cannot withhold this acknowledgment from any use it may be to others, especially as I have applied in vain to my family physician and other physicians of reputation. Yours truly,

JOHN NOTT.

LETTER FROM

C. C. WAITE, Esq.,

Proprietor of the Sherman House, Chicago.

CHICAGO, November 6th, 1868.

DR. LIGHTHILL—DEAR SIR: I wish to express to you the appreciation of your skill as a practitioner, particularly in the relief afforded many afflicted with Catarrh; I, myself, having received permanent benefit from your treatment. Congratulating the afflicted in the West of an opportunity to avail themselves of your invaluable services, and wishing you much success, I am, yours very truly,

C. C. WAITE.

LETTER FROM

CAPT. SILAS F. MILLER,

Proprietor of the Burnett House, Cincinnati.

BURNETT HOUSE February 9th, 1867.

TO MY FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC:

It affords me great satisfaction to be able to testify to the success of Dr. Lighthill in the treatment of deafness, and express my sense of obligation to him. My hearing has been impaired for a number of years, at times to such an extent as to embarrass me seriously. Dr. Lighthill, under whose care I placed myself, has removed the difficulty completely, and restored me to perfect hearing.

SILA F. MILLER.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal in ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The Directors agree to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

☞ LOCAL AGENTS ARE WANTED in every City and Town; and applications from competent parties for such agencies with suitable endorsement, should be addressed To THE COMPANY'S GENERAL AGENTS ONLY, in their respective districts.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 13, 1868.

Money still remains firm at 7 per cent. on call, and is likely to rule so until the end of the year.

The gold market was subject to-day to sudden changes, opening at 137⅝, advancing to 139⅞, declining te 137⅛, again advancing to 137⅞ and 138, and closing dull at 137⅝. The bull party construed the sales announced by the government at 300,000 per day until three millions would be sold as too small an amount which could be absorbed by the cliques without any difficulty buy at a 7 per cent. market it is too expensive to carry gold and merchants and importers are disposed not to buy until after the November payments have been made by the government. It is also likely that a large portion of the gold due foreign holders will be reinvested in bonds, and thus remittances of either cash gold avoided or a large amount of exchange be thrown on the market at rates far below gold.

Government bonds are very strong, and in anticipation of a large foreign demand, together with an increased home investment, will rule higher yet no bankers will buy largely at present prices, without seeing his way clear and therefore the constant oscilations of the market.

Stocks are very strong, contrary to all expectations; parties are buying now on a 7 per cent. money market, and carry stocks they were not willing to carry at 3 per cent. when prices ruled much lower. There is an active speculative feeling in Erie and Cleveland & Pittsburgh; Erie is reported to be at its lowest point, and likely to be run up to 60 to 70, its former price. The parties short in the stock cannot draw out any at present quotations, and a clique is being formed to run the stock. Cleveland was thrown up the other day, and now is bought back by strong parties.

Business is rather dull.

—In financial circles there has been a very good demand for loans throughout the week, each and almost every branch of industry being represented in the list of applicants. Grain-dealers have, perhaps, been most urgent in their demands, but at the same time the shipments of grain to the seaboard have been comparatively light and unequal to the receipts at this center, the margin between the Western and Eastern markets not being sufficient to warrant such a proceeding profitable. As a consequence of meager shipments, some of our banks to-day were expressing currency to New York in order to keep good heir balances—a state of affairs, particularly at this season of the year and so near the close of navigation, that is unsatisfactory, and fears are entertained in some quarters that we shall have have to carry a very large amount of grain through the winter, which would prove detrimental to nearly all classes of business, inasmuch as it would lock up a large amount of money, and keep the loan market in a close condition. It is to be hoped that such a state of affairs will not exist this winter, and we trust that our grain merchants will see the injury that will result if prices are kept up unnecessarily and through the manipulation of "rings" and speculators, so as not to allow of a respectable margin between this city and the sea board.—Chicago Republican, 12th.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 13, 1868.

CRUDE.

The market was again very quiet to-day, and there was little or no change compared with yesterday, excepting perhaps a little weaker feeling. There were but two sales reported, both for October, 1,000 bbls at 12 and another 1,000 at 12¼. We are cognizant of an offer to sell November and December at 12c, and the best offer obtained was 11½. Telegrams from Oil City quoted at $4,50, on cars there which is considered equivalent to 12 cents here. As has been the case for some days past, there is but little disposition manifested to either buy or sell, the time and attention of dealers generally being absorbed in the election. To-morrow, it is probable, the market will begin to show itself more plainly, and it is likely that the volume of business will be much larger.

REFINED.

The Refined market was also exceedingly quiet to-day, unusually so, not a single sale reported. Spot oil is steady at 29 to 29½c, and the last half of October was quoted firm at 30c. November and December—nominal at 28¼c. As will be seen from the above, there is but little change in prices, compared with yesterday, and while the market is quiet, there seems to be no disposition at present to make any further concessions, especially for spot and the last half of October. November and December are off slightly, though the pressure to sell does not seem to be strong. There is a continued steady western demand, and we can report regular sales of 50 and 100 barrel lots at 26 to 27c, delivered on cars here.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 13, 1868.

There is nothing new or really important to be said about the markets in general. Business generally was very quiet, the eletion being the all absorbing theme of interest, and but little else was talked of or thought about.

APPLES—Quiet and unchanged—regular sales at $2,50 to $3,50 and in some instances choice command $4.

BUTTER—Continues dull with a supply considerably in excess of the demand; sales of prime packed at 35 to 37 and prime roll at 38 to 40.

CHEESE—Is steady with regular sales at 17 to 20, as to quality.

POTATOES—Sales of Peach Blows and Neshannock; at $3 per bbl and Jersey Sweets at $5 to $5,25 for prime fresh receipts.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand and firm at $2,50. Timothy Seed is dull and in good supply; quoted at $3 to $3,25. Nothing doing in Clover Seed, and no established prices.

SALT—Dull; sales of Allegheny River brands at $1,75 by the car load, and $1,90 to $2 in store.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny Diamond Scales of 81 loads at $28 to $38 per ton, as to quality; also, 2 loads Straw at $20.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and nominally unchanged; we quote No. 1 Spring at $1,75 and No. 1 Winter at $2. Barley is scarce, and with a steady demand, prices are fully maintained; prime Penna and Ohio Spring $2, and prime Canada at $2,10. Oats scarce and firmer; may be quoted at 66c, on track, and 68 to 70c, in store. Rye is firm, with a sale of 1 car at $1,45. Corn is steady, with regular sales at $1,15 to $1,17, as to quality.

PROVISIONS—Bacon unchanged at 13½ for Shoulders; 16c to 18 for Ribbed, and Clear Sides, and 20c to 20½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard 20 to 20½c, for prime kettle rendered. Mess Pork, $30,50 to $31.

LARD OIL—Firm but unchanged at $1,25 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

TALLOW—Prime rendered is in steady demand at 12½ to 13c.

CHESTNUTS—In steady demand at $8 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—Prime Cultivated $15 per bbl.

FLOUR—Is quiet and unchanged. The receipts of Spring Wheat were unusually large during the past day or two, which would indicate that dealers are beginning to think that the bottom has about been reached. Spring Wheat brands may be quoted at $8,50 to $9,25. The mills continue to quote Extra Family at $10,30 in bbls, and $10, in sacks; Double Extra at $10,80, in bbls, and $10,50 in sacks. Rye Flour, $8,50.

WHISKY—Is firm and in fair demand but unchanged; sales Rectified at $1,25 and Highwines, $1,35.

Iron Markets.

PHILADELPHIA, October 10.—There is no falling off in the demand for pig metal, and prices continues very strong. Sales of 400 tons No. 1 Anthracite at $42 to $43; 1,500 tons Allentown on secret terms; No. 2, in lots, at $38 to $39; 500 tons Lehigh Crane No. 2 grey forge at $36; 500 tons do do, white and mottled at $33 per ton, and 1,500 tons, in lots, within the range of our quotations. Scotch Pig—Is held firmly at $43 to $44 per ton. Manufactured iron—The demand is active at $85 to $87,50 per ton for bar. Blooms—move slowly.

BOSTON, October 10.—The late free arrivals of foreign pig metal at New York have rather depressed that market, which has all along back ruled relatively higher than this. But importers are not pressing their stocks at any material reduction, because they cannot afford to do so, and because they believe that gold is bound to go higher, checking further importations. The supply of American pig is on the increase, and the late extreme rates for No. 1 are hardly sustained.

Scotch pig is quiet, with small sales of Gartsherrie and other brands, No. 1, in lots for consumption, at $43 to $45 per ton for the various brands. American is dull and shading, with sales of retail lots at $40 to $45,50 per ton, for the different numbers. Charcoal pig is selling at $50 to $60 per ton, as to brand. Bar iron is steady and in small stock, with sales of English and American, from store, at $87,50 to $95 per ton for common, and $100 to $105 for refined. Railroad iron is in steady demand, with sales at $52 to $53 per ton, gold, for Eng ish, and $81 to $82 per ton, currency, for American. Cast Steel is selling at 18 to 23c per pound for English, and 21 to 23c for American.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, October 13.—The cattle market is more active, at $1,87½a4,80 for common to good cows; $5,25a5,50 for medium to light steers,, and $6,25a7,12½ for good to extra choice shipping. Hogs firmer and more active, at $7,40a8,30 for fair to prime; $8,50a8,75 for fair to extra smooth. Receipts —15 head hogs. Shipments—3,175 head hogs.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, October 13.—Dry goods market, little or no change to notice, and business, on the whole, is inactive, but firm for all staple fabrics in sympathy with raw materials.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

RELIGIOUS.

Dedication of the North Avenue, M. E. Church--Description of the Building--The Sunday School--Dedicatory Services.

On the corner of North Avenue and Beaver street, Allegheny, one of the most eligible and well chosen sites in either city, is erected the magnificent new church edifice of the North Avenue M. E. Congregation. The structure which has been in course of erection for some time past, was finished ready for occupancy a few days since, and on Sabbath last, with joyful hearts, the congregation engaged in the dedicatory services.

Externally, the edifice, presents a regular, imposing and elegantly proportioned outline, admirably suited to and handsomely adorning the site which it occupies. The space of ground which is covered fronts seventy feet on North Avenue and extends backward along Beaver street one hundred feet. The architecture is of a modernized style, in which the fancy Gothic harmoniously blends with the massive Norman. The walls are of fine pressed brick, neatly decorated and trimmed with cut stone facings and cappings. Octagonal pilasters rising several feet above the cornice and each capped with a delicately carved stone pinnacle, form the four corners. Square buttresses, five on each side, relieve the monotony of the walls and alternate with a similar number of arched double windows trimmed and faced with stone, occupying the central portion of the front wall, is the buttressed bell tower, extending seven feet forward at the base and rising to a heighth of about one hundred and fifty feet. The tower is decorated with ornamental trimmings and pinnacle cappings of stone, and ends with an octagonal spire fifty feet high, closed in with handsomely checkered and variegated slate. The center of the tower immediately above the main entrance is taken up with a large triple-arched stained glass window—a most beautiful and exquisite specimen of of artistic taste and skill. On the wall at either side of this central window is a smaller one double arched, but of a similar finish. One of Fulton's sweet toned bells is suspended in its appropriate place, and, as occasion requires, with sonorous melody, calls the worshippers together. The sloping wall on either side of the tower is surmounted with massive carved stonework of a unique design, and neat brick arches underneath resting on small stone buttresses form the cornices. Surrounding the edifice is a space twelve feet in width, which will be planted with shade trees, and enclosed in an iron railing, no expense being spared to beautify the outward appearance,

Passing from North avenue through a broad arched doorway access is gained to the vestibule and from it by the ascent of two short flights of stairs to the main auditorium. This is one of the largest in either city, and in the finish and fitting up a model of richness and elegance. Light oak grained paneling, tapped with walnut, covers the walls from the floor up to the window sills, the remainder being frescoed in dark lilac coloring, with Corinthian columns internening between the windows. The ceiling is level and frescoed in elaborate diamond and square patterns, interspersed with scroll work and ornamented with a running vine bordering.

In the rear of the pulpit the wall is frescoed in an arch and supporting columns with a vine border, and contains a circular stained glass window of large and handsome proportions. The pulpit consists of a light stand occupying the center and front of a platform raised about two feet from the floor. This platform is covered with an oak leaf, figured carpet corresponding with that of the main floor, and is furnished with a small sofa and two gothic backed sofa chairs. On either side rises a slender bronze gas stand with three burners in each. There are three aisles in the room, a broad one in the middle, running from the pulpit stand to the entrance, and two side aisles, one row of pews intervening between them and the walls. The wood work of the pews is grained in light oak imitation, with solid walnut trimmings. They furnish comfortable accommodation for nine hundred persons, which, with the arrangements in the gallery running across the front end, renders this part of the church capable of seating twelve hundred persons, although the fact was evinced on Sunday that nearly double that number can be present at one time.

The stained glass work in the windows is the finest we have ever seen, and reflects great credit on the artizan. The centre is in circular and diamond patterns of green coloring, bordered on either side with running vines of blue and gold. In each alternate window the bordering is replaced with small squares of the same style and the light admitted while sufficiently strong, is relieved of all glaring, illuminating the interior with a rich and softened radiance. In the evening the scattering of the shadows is effected by the aid of a powerful gasolier which for the time, supercedes the brilliancy of the sunbeams. The only remaining feature in the fitting up of the auditorium, which we have failed to note is the organ, which needs no mention, as it spoke for itself on the occasion, in more beautiful language than we have at command.

Descending the stairs and entering once more the vestibule, at the rear of it we find a large room specially fitted up for the use of the

SUNDAY SCHOOL,

Of which we have only space for a passing sketch.

It seems to have been the design of the Superintendant, Thomas Bakewell, Esq., under whose direction and expense this room was fitted up, to make it perfect in all its parts, and, if we can judge, he has certainly succeeded. Against the wall opposite the main entrance is erected a raised platform, carpeted and furnished with a small marble-top table and two sofa chairs, a beautiful fountain in the centre of the platform, sends upward its silvery jets, which descending fall into a large basin, where gold fish and other species of the finny tribe are sporting. A neat stand on either side of the fountain containing each a Bible and hymn book, complete the furniture of the platform. On the wall at the rear, a modest clock ticks the hours away, a monitor reminding all to redeem the time. Over the clock the motto in gilded glass letters reads, "Thou God see'st me," while those on either side, arranged in semi-circular order, testify that, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God," and "All thy children shall be taught of the Lord." Running up and down the door posts, on either side of the regular entrance, are the mottoes reading, "Swear not at all," and "Remember the Sabbath Day."

The floor is handsomely carpeted, and occupied with cane seat chairs, in sections, arranged around the platform. Four beautiful bronze chandeliers, aided by two side brackets, furnish all the necessary light, when occasion requires. The wood work is all grained in light oak imitation, to correspond with that of the auditorium. In the rear of the room are five smaller ones, used as class rooms, and at the front, and communicating, are two others, one used as an infant department, and containing a fountain similar to the one in the main room though somewhat smaller. It is also carpeted and seated in amphitheatre style. The remaining Room is used as a Young Men's Bible Class Room and Church Parlor, and is fitted up to correspond with the rest of the Church. The progress of the Sunday School since the present Superintendent assumed the duties of that position has been one of uninterrupted success, and it is now one of the largest in the State or anywhere. Judging from its appearance on the day of dedication, it is certainly worthy of all the praise which we everywhere hear it spoken of.

An account of the building would not be complete without mentioning the building committee, Messrs. McKelvy and Drum, who had charge of all the arrangements in that line since the architects, Messrs. Barr & Moser laid the plan in their hands. They have performed the duties well, the highest compliment they can be paid. The estimated cost of the edifice is $80,000, but we are persuaded that before it is fully completed the amount will be over, rather than under, that figure.

Taken altogether it is a valuable contribution to the Church architecture of our vicinity, and the congregation through whose efforts it has been erected deserves the highest praise for their energy and enterprise. This will become more apparent when the

of the organization is known, regarding which a few words may not be out of place. One Sunday, in the latter part of the month of March, 1866, a company of persons, numbering in all fourteen, assembled at the residence of one of their number in Allegheny, and after due deliberation determined upon the organization of a religious society. Several subsequent meetings were held, resulting in some accessions to their membership, and the appointment by the proper tribunal of Rev. Isaac Aiken as pastor. The fonndations for a church had been laid some time previous by an organization which, for some reason, had dropped the matter. The new society went actively and immediately to work, procured a charter and secured this property upon which their building now stands. A temporary frame structure was erected in the rear of the present one. and in this they worshipped until the completion of the lecture room of their new building about ten months since. Rev. Aiken served as pastor for several months, when his health failed and he relinquished his charge in favor of Rev. R. T, White, who continued in the capacity until the meeting of Conference in March, 1867. At that Conference Rev. E. B. Snyder was transferred from the Christ Church charge of this city to the new organization styled the North avenue M. E. Church. The congregation increased rapidly in membership under the care of Rev. Snyder, and now numbers nearly three hundred on its roll. Rev. Snyder is an active and faithful pastor, a good preacher, and is very much beloved by his parishioners. With such a record they might well rejoice and with happy and hopeful hearts engage in the services of

THE DEDICATION.

The bell in the tower, as it joyfully swung to and fro, seemed to ring out a cordial invitation to all on Sunday morning, which was answered by the gathering of an immense congregation, who filled the large and spacious auditorium to its utmost capacity. Among the ministers occupying the platform and who assisted in conducting the exercises, we noticed Revs. W. Smith, Pershing, Long, Pugh, Kincaid and Graham.

At half past ten o'clock the exercises which were of a solemn and impressive commenced, character, with a voluntary by the well-trained choir, Prof. W. B. Slack leading, and Prof. Stenman at the organ. Rev. E. B. Snyder then read the opening hymn, which was followed with prayer by Rev. W. Smith who fervently invoked the Divine blessing upon the enterprise in all its departments.

Rev. I. C. Pershing read the first morning lesson from Isaiah, followed by Rev. Pugh, who chose a portion of the Book of Hebrews for the second lesson.

At the conclusion of these exercises,

Bishop Simpson enchained the attention of the audience for about an hour and a half with one of those indescribably powerful and touching discourses for which he is so eminently remarkable, after which he formally dedicated the church in accordance with the beautiful ceremony prescribed in the book of discipline. The ceremony occupied about twenty minutes, and at its conclusion the doxology was sung and the audience dismissed with the benediction. In the afternoon the Sunday School convened and spent an hour in singing and other exercises, followed at three o'clock with an eloquent sermon, to a large congregation, by Dr. L. F. Morgan, of Christ Church, who took for his text Isaiah 35th chapter and 8th, 9th and 10th verses.

Dr. I. C. Pershing, of the Female College, occupied the evening, and called the attention of those present to the words contained in the 2nd chapter of Hebrews, and part of the third verse, developing his theme in a very able and effective manner.

This closed the exercises of the occasion, and the large audience of members of the congregation, and friends of the enterprise, slowly scattered homeward, meditating on the occurrences of the day, and bearing pleasant memories of its experiences.

"Breaking the Bank" at Baden-Baden.

The Paris Figaro reports the success of a certain M. Edgar de la Charme, who, for a number of days together, never left the gaming-room at Baden-Baden without carrying off the sum of twenty-four thousand francs. The Figaro gives the following account of the close of his campaign:

"The day before yesterday M. de la Charme, reflecting that there must be an end even to the greatest run of luck, locked his portmanteau, paid his bill, and took the road to the railway station, accompanied by some of his friends. On reaching the wicket he found it closed; there were still three-quarters of an hour to pass before the departure of the train. 'I will go and play my parting game,' he exclaimed, and, turning to the coachman, bade him drive to the Kursaal. His friends surrounded him and held him back; he should not go; he would lose all his winnings. But he was resolute and soon reached the Casino, where his travelling dress caused a stir of satisfaction among the croupiers. He sat down at the trente et quarante, broke the bank in twenty minutes, got into his cab again; and seeing the inspector of the tables walking to and fro under the arcades, he said to him in a tone of exquisite politeness, 'I could not think of going away without leaving you my P. P. C.'"

JUDGE POLAND, of Vermont, in his speech at Providence, said:

"I heard an excellent story told the other day upon the stump in relation to the identity of the old Democratic party with that of modern times. It was said by this man who told the story that in a certain family they had a vinegar barrel that had remained for several generations in the family, and they had a great veneration for it. It was grandfather's vinegar barrel, and they all reverenced it. But by and by the hoops had become rotten, and they were renewed, and the heads and staves had given away, and they were replaced; and finally an inquiry was set on foot as to the identity of this barrel with grandfather's old vinegar barrel, and, after a strict examination, he said the only point of identity between the two—the only thing that remained of grandfather's old vinegar barrel—was the bung hole. (Laughter.) And that is just about as much identity as there is between the modern Democratic party and the Democratic party of the old time."

A REMARKABLE petrifaction was recently discovered at Sheridan, at the end of the Kansas Pacific Railroad. It seems to have been the remains of a crocodile, and measures one hundred and twenty-six feet in length from the head to the end of the tail. Of the jaws only the upper one was found, which measured seven feet to the first joint of the spinal column, and actually weighed seventy-five pounds. The tail measured sixteen feet in length. The first bone measured four-and-a-half inches in diameter, and the last, three-fourths of an inch.

MEDICAL.

"MANHOOD."—Another New MEDICAL PAMPHLET, from the pen of DR. CURTIS. The Medical Times says of this work: "This valuable treatise on the cause and cure of premature decline, shows how health is impaired through secret abuses of youth and manhood, and how easily regained. It gives a clear synopsis of the impediments to marriage, the cause and effects of nervous debility, and the remedies therefor." A pocket edition of the above will be forwarded on receipt of 25 cents, by addressing Doctor CURTIS, No. 38

THE ELECTION YESTERDAY.

The election yesterday proceeded quietly and a large vote was polled by both parties. Notwithstanding the bitter partizan feeling which has been prevailing in this neighborhood during the past few weeks, no disturbance worth mentioning occurred at the polls. The Republicans have elected their Mayor, Controller, Treasurer; their Congressmen in the Twenty-Second and Twenty-Third Districts. They had a full vote out. Brush's majority over Blackmore will approximate fifteen hundred. In the Ninth and Tenth wards they lost their Councilmen, but in all the other hitherto Republican wards held their own nicely.

Our Republicans have made a clean sweep. They have carried everything before them in Pittsburgh and Allegheny county. This was the result of work, and, if our friends in the Eastern section of the State have done equally as well, the Commonwealth speaks to-day fifteen thousand majority for the Union Republican ticket. Here are the returns so far as received up to our hour of going to press:

Those set in Italic are Democrats, or at least were nominated in opposition to the regular Republican ticket.

Amende.—In our report of the grand torchlight demonstration, we failed to make mention of the fine display made by the Pioneer Grant Club of the Second ward, which turned out nearly three hundred strong. We might also say something kindly of the splendid appearance of the First Brigade of the Second Division, under command of the soldierly Capt. W. B. Cook, were it not that the whole Division deserted us in Allegheny, which we were serving as a staff officer, on a spirited charger. We are smarting under the mark of disrespect shown us on the occasion.

Hearing the News.—Fully ten thousand persons were crowded into City Hall, the Republican headquarters, last night to receive the election returns. Col. J. H. Stewart, our worthy ex-Sheriff, officiated as announcer of the returns, and sent every good bit of Republican news home to the hearts of his anxious hearers. The meeting held up till past midnight, when all returned to their homes satisfied with the result. Messrs. Negley, Marshall, Errett, Bigham, Brush and others made fitting speeches.

Bad Treatment.—Fannie, Andrew and Bridget Donevan reside in Virgin Alley. Yesterday Fannie made information before Alderman McMasters against Bridget for assault and battery. Fannie alleges that Bridget beat her, spit in her face, emptied two buckets of water upon her, and wound up by striking her over the head with a wet dirty cloth. Bridget was arrested and committed for trial.

Boy Injured.—A little boy, son of Hugh McNeill, Esq., of Allegheny City, while playing with some of his school mates, yesterday afternoon, on the cars of the West Pennsylvania Railroad, having lost his balance, fell between two of the cars and was seriously, though it is to be hoped, not dangerously injured.

Look! Look! Look! Look Out for a Cheap Home.—Look out for G. H. Tower's advertisement of Houses, Farms and Lots that will appear in the GAZETTE in a few days. Remember to miss this you will miss a chance.

Religious.—The article on the North Avenue M. E. Church, Allegheny, which was crowded out of Monday's issue, will be found on our Seventh page to-day.

Railway Improvements.

The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, one of the most progressive and enterprising corporations in the country, are making many important improvements along their line of road. At Sewickley they are building a very beautiful and commodious passenger station, which when completed will be worthy both of the company and the steadily increasing population of that flourishing borough.

At Beaver Falls a large passenger depot has already been erected. Workmen are busily engaged in excavating for the foundation of a new round house at the Falls. When it is completed, we are informed, all the accommodation trains which stop at New Brighton will run to that point. Beaver Falls is building up rapidly and promises soon to become a town of considerable importance. It is now a regular station, and does a considerable passenger and freight business.

The deep ravine at Wallace's Run, after five or six years almost incessant labor, and at a very large outlay, has been filled up and the track laid. Trains have been running over it regularly since last Sunday. This important improvement, with the construction of some two miles of a new road between the Run and Homewood, straightens out a number of sharp curves, and, it is said, will make a difference on a "regular run" of some three or four minutes, as it will not be necessary to "check up," as heretofore, at the bridge.

A magnificent new iron bridge is being erected over the Big Beaver, at New Brighton.

We notice that at other points along the road, comfortable passenger stations have been erected for the convenience and accommodation of way travelers, so that those waiting on the trains will not be exposed either to the summer's heat or the winter's cold. The managers of the line are leaving nothing undone that can be accomplished to secure comfort to the patrons of the road, and their safe and speedy transit.

At Last.—The Federal Street and Pleasant Valley Passenger Railway commenced operations yesterday. Four cars were put on the road and made regular trips during the day. For the first day the road was very well patronized.

Small Row.

A small row occurred in front of Burnell's museum, Fifth avenue, yesterday afternoon. A coal heaver had been employed to put in a load of coal by Major Burnell, who paid him as soon as the work was done. The fellow, it seems, invested the money in whisky, which somewhat dimmed his memory, and shortly afterwards he appeared at the museum and demanded payment again. The demand, of course, was refused, which caused him to become boisterous and collect a large crowd around the place. A policeman, in endeavoring to arrest him, was knocked into the gutter and retired discomfitted. He was finally compelled to leave and the crowd dispersed.

Felonious Assault.—George McCarthy made information yesterday before Alderman McMasters against John Gibson for felonious assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant threatened to shoot his daughter, and struck her in the mouth with his fist. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the ungallant masculine.

Approaching Completion.—The new school building in the Fifth ward, Allegheny, is rapidly approaching completion. The work is so far advanced as to insure the finishing of the building ready for occupancy, during the present year.

About Again.—The numerous friends of Mr. James Onslow will be pleased to learn that he has so far recovered from a severe attack of rheumatism, which confined him to his room for several months, as to be able to get around again.

Commenced.—Operations on the Park sewer, along the line of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, in Allegheny, were commenced a few days ago, and the work is being pushed forward rapidly.

Surety.—Thomas Fanell was yesterday committed to jail by Alderman Thomas on an information for surety of the peace, preferred against him by his wife, Julia Fanell. The parties reside in the Ninth ward.

FROM EUROPE.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ENGLAND.

LONDON, October 13.—Mr. Gladstone has commenced the political canvass in Lancashire with an able speech, in which he denounced the Tories for their course on the Irish Church question.

The Times this morning has an editorial on the attitudes of the parties in the United States in regard to the national debt. It says, admitting both Republican and Democratic parties contain large factions who urge the payment of the principal debt in paper, an American statesman in the present vagueness of the law, and in the crayving necessity for economy, more conscientiously held that view. But the Times argues
